Jeffrey,

Here is the latest plan study G-9 based on the enclo=ed sketch you sent us last week.

The cascading stairs are gone and it opens up the wh=le center area. In order to keep the symmetry of the plan, the newly proposed stairs to t=e east are encroaching onto the road.

I think you anticipated that as well based on your s=etch. We will have to verify if this

Is doable. The plaza at level +37 is a bit too la=ge but it may work incorporating it to the road.

We have also moved the Living Room as you had sugges=ed slightly to the northeast.

The spacing between the office and the Living Room i= now 25', exactly the same distance between the bedroom and kitchen.

I am on a business trip the rest of the week and ret=rning Monday.

Warwick will be back Thursday for any comments and/o= revisions.

Hope you are well and talk to you next week.

Tom
