Dear Friends and Neighbors:

I began using Facebook and Twitter to send updates during my campaign for Mayor last year. Since being elected, I have continued to use social media to communicate directly with the people of Miami Beach. We strive to post timely updates and provide information about what's happening around the city, as well as to spread our positive message about moving Miami Beach forward and making the city one that works for its people.

I invite you to join our social media movement. Click on the icons below to find/follow us on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube.
