hi jeffrey,

..so for the relax room I will do white on white venetian plaster vertical and horizontal lines. w= discussed in new york about making the lines wider. the relax room=has tiles on the floor and one tile is 16X16 inches, so I was thinking to follow th= floor lines up on the wall so those vertical and horizontal lines I will do on th= wall will be 16 inches wide with a distance between them by 16 inches. =3B so we will have somehow the same squares on the wall like on the floor.

so what do you think about this?=/font>

&n=sp; =3B thank you,
