The annual percentage yield on a Deutsche Bank AG Preferred CD assumes that interest will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal will reduce the interest earned on the CD. The interest rates offered by Deutsche Bank AG are subject to change and fluctuate daily.

² Interest earned on the Preferred CDs with original maturities of one year or less than one year will be paid at maturity and interest earned on Preferred CDs with original maturities of more than one year will be paid annually and at maturity. The Deutsche Bank AG Preferred CD will NOT pay interest after maturity.

³ In the event you wish to make an early withdrawal of your Deutsche Bank AG Preferred CD, and such withdrawal is permitted by us in our sole discretion, we will impose a penalty if you withdraw the deposited funds within the first six days after purchasing your NY Branch CD in accordance with Regulation D of the Federal Reserve Board. The penalty will equal seven days' simple interest on the amount withdrawn. After the initial six day period, we will impose a penalty if you withdraw the deposited funds before the maturity date. The penalty will equal 30 days' simple interest on the principal amount of the Deutsche Bank AG Preferred CD if the CD has a maturity of one year or less or all interest if the CD has a maturity of less than one month. If the Deutsche Bank AG Preferred CD has a maturity greater than one year, the penalty will equal three months' simple interest on the principal balance of the CD.
