Great to speak with you =hursday as always, David.

I was hoping to get something to you yesterday, =ut I understand that we'll have a package ready by the end of next =eek with more details on the financials, etc., so to get the ball =olling I put together a very simple document last night (see attached) =96 but please - this is probably only for your use for now....

Please call me any time to =discuss, even over this weekend if you'd like.

We would like to try and get =omething set up relatively quickly to ease the pressure on our =uppliers, and obviously the sooner we do this the better.

Many thanks for your help as always, looking forward to speaking with you again soon,

With best regards,

Guy
