Yep!

He said he would consider it, his only concern was that the role would be undefined, because I'm not a Producer. I said it didn't matter, I don't need a title, I will just come on board and find a way to value it. He needs help. He is considering signing up for the Morning Show on CBS, so his work load will double.

I think the proposal should be brief. Just let me start and I will seek donations to cover my income and he can pay me once funds have been received. Agree?
