Dear Jeffrey,

I am supposed to go to Sweden this weekend to among other things final=ze the long-awaited BBBwebsite! As you can see we will do this at a BBBbar event...then of course we h=ve the BBBXmas celebration on December 12th, as you know..The whole idea with =he website is to being able to solicit companies who already have gotten BBBs=20 working for them and attract new ones who are interested to review c.v.'s f= 150 of the Best&Brightest! But- we cannot do this without your support,=if possible? Please let me know!!love BE
