Alexis Adler & Glenn O'Brien
Friday, March 6th, 6:30 – 8 PM
The Gallery

In 1979, Alexis Adler was at the heart of the New York City downtown. Her photographs of the city's desolation contrast with the vibrancy of her cohorts and friends—a few in particular who were responsible for transforming the art landscape of New York and beyond. Writer, filmmaker, editor, and host of Glenn O'Brien's TV Party, Glenn O'Brien talks with now renowned scientist and photographer Adler, Barry Frier, and Felice Rosser, about their curated contribution to SPRING/BREAK Art Show—a historic unveiling of photographs and sketches from the once thriving apex of the New York City downtown.
