Hi =EE...

You see the attached? I've been getting =ounded over my comments about Silicon Valley... which were =aid, basically, in an "idle chit-chat" conversation about =here the reporter lived -- SF -- and why I =hought living there was a good idea. I had no idea that =he story would have much to do with me... I thought it was =oing to be about CASBS (if I had known, I would have asked to =ave that off the record). It's also got errors of various =orts. I wasn't a SU undergrad, I wasn't =roud to have been at a Dead concert -- I was =emused to have been a guard at one... etc.. Too bad =e wouldn't show it to me in proofs. Anyway, I re-learned an =ld lesson: Be careful, careful, and careful around =eporters, even ones I like and are very =riendly.
