Good Morning Rich,
Attached are two different things that Mano and I gave JE. Please note the date on the proposal of December -2010. Things have not changed much and I do not feel that what is needed has changed. The other item I am sending is a list of many many things that need done. This list was made at least a year ago and has not changed much either.
Happy Fathers Day! I hope you have a wonderful day with your family.
Wendy
