

---

From: Karyna Shuliak [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, July 19, 2012 1:28 PM
To: Jeffrey
Subject: Fwd: I-20
Attachments: Sandra Garcia M A .vcf; image001.jpg

----- Forwarded message -----

From:="Sandra Garcia" <[REDACTED]>
Date: Jul 19, 2012 9:24 AM
Subject: I-20
To: &=t [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Dear Karyna:<=>

I had a long conversation with Ms. Bonnie Garner =his morning. First of all, the attorney that called on your behalf yesterday was very forceful with her and that is why she was short and abrupt with=him. She had also not seen the new admit letter we supplied before spea=ing with him.

Now that=she has the new letter, she really needs your documentation. She waited=all day for your friend to drop it off yesterday and no one came to her of=ice. She would like you to call her at [REDACTED] %=05455> before=noon today so she can explain what she needs and when she will be receivin= your documentation.

As an as=de, there is no guarantee you will be approved for the F-1. Having appl=ed for political asylum means you intend to immigrate; and F1 is for those=with no intention of immigrating. It could take some time and get compl=cated but she will definitely try to work with you and do as much as she c=n from her end. Ultimately decision is made elsewhere.

Thank yo= so much for your patience and understanding with this process. Your si=uation is unique and has provided some challenges we need to work through.=u>

=AO

Thanks

Sandi

=U>