Jeff called today asking about which remotes and =luray player we wanted to go with I told him you wanted BIG =NIVERSAL remote from Radio Shack (which Darren already =ought) He then told me that Big Universal remote will =ot work as it lacks a gateway interface. He says that the only 3 =options are Ipad, Crestron or RTI remotes. Jeff would like to =ome by next week to make sure you are happy with system and do a final =weeking to your desire Please advise
