Dear Friends and Neighbors,

A majority (54%) of Miami Beach voters today said they are ready to finish the job at our convention center. There is little doubt that the secretive efforts by the opponents of the measure resulted in the referendum failing to reach the near super-majority requirement.

Over the last few weeks, we've seen a small group hide behind shady outside PACs and engage in the worst scare tactics to spread complete lies about the hotel referendum. It's incumbent on the media and independent ethics and elections boards to review the tactics employed in this election as these PACs purposefully skirted election laws, resulting in voters receiving complete falsehoods without the benefit of knowing who funded these attacks.

I commend Jack Portman, nearly all my colleagues on the commission and the neighborhood leaders who joined together to answer questions for residents and deliver the facts. Over the coming weeks, I will work with my colleagues to ensure that the will of the majority of Miami Beach voters is not silenced and that the progress we've made with our convention-center corridor continues.

Sincerely,

Philip Levine
Mayor of Miami Beach
