
From: Jeff Brodsky [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, May 6, 2016 2:39 AM
To: jeevacation@gmail.com
Subject: Follow-up

Jeff,

Nice talking with you yesterday. We're pulling together some sample reports=which I expect to send to you next week. However, as we discussed, for our=large family office clients there are no "standard reports". Rat=er, it often depends on the audience (i.e., CIO vs CEO vs family member) and the desired information. We'd welcome the=opportunity to meet with you to discuss in more detail the goals and objec=ives for the desired reporting. That would provide the best opportunity fo= us to demonstrate our ability to provide the needed reporting. We're happy to come to your offices =or such a meeting.

Best regards, Jeff

=/p>

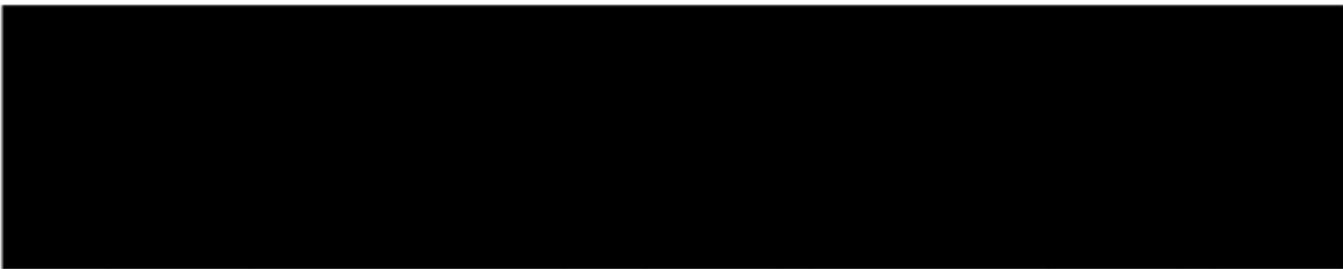

--

</=pan>

Jef= Brodsky | Private Client Services

<=:p>

Ernst &=mp; Young LLP

Any tax advice in this e-mail should be considered in the context of the ta= services we are providing to you. Preliminary tax advice should not be re=iied upon and may be insufficient for penalty protection.

Notice required by law: This e-mail may constitute an advertisement or soli=itation under U.S. law, if its primary purpose is to advertise or promote = commercial product or service. You may choose not to receive advertising =nd promotional messages from Ernst & Young LLP (except for EY Client Portal and the ey.com website, which=track e-mail preferences through a separate process) at this e-mail address= by forwarding this message to no-more-mail@ey.com. If you do so, the send=r of this message will be notified promptly. Our principal postal address is 5 Times Square, New York, NY 100=6. Thank you. Ernst & Young LLP