yes, i was thinking to paint the blocks of rock getting horizontal lines like in the picture attached= if you zoom the picture you've sent me there are blocks of rock in different tones of brown-grey and the light horizontal lines tones of=cream..

i left a little space in the between blocks. in the picture you sent me(bellow) the space between blocks is very small.
&nbsp; should i do the space between blocks smaller like in the picture you=sent me?

i did the arch with smaller blocks because i saw in some mamluk architecture pictures=2C the arch has smaller blocks then the sides of the door. in this=picture i attached here i draw the blocks of the arch larger.

i thin= looks pretty good.., what do you think?

once we'll have all the rocks drawn then we can paint the rocks..
=nbsp;maybe is better to draw all the building first and then start paint=ng. painting it would be easier because we dont have to do measure=nts and taping..

i built the arch like in mamluk architecture=stile...with two arches..
=nbsp;if you find some design for the inside door please send it to me so=i can reproduce. we saw a nice design for the top door inside arch when yo= were here but i cant find it..

thank you,
