Jeffrey

here is the talk i will give in Zagreb, in London and elsewhere—I think it's a nice outgrowth of our collaboration, i will slice and dice the feminists in the first several minutes, will titillate the audience with transsexuality and homosexuality and end with something the feminists have nothing to say about—Honor Killings

BTW the women in Zagreb are famously beautiful, perhaps a bit more light-skinned than i am used to, but i am eager to make the adjustment things are productive and healthy in Quiet-ville but also a bit boring; am mostly working on five new chapters for second edition of my memoir, since Polish and Spanish translators will shortly need the new material all best
