Jeffrey

I reviewed this order and everything is in order. Please note that this reflects a 20% discount that is part of a special promotion that is only valid through Monday. They normally give designers only a 0% discount.

Please note that the counts for the queen sets includes the pillows and flat sheet for the full beds also. There is no difference between queen and full in pillows and flat sheets, only in the fitted sheets.

Please let me know if this is approved and I will then place the order with our credit card.

Thanks,
Gregory
