I believe it's shipping v=a truck/freight because of the physical size of the shipment, and therefore=shipping ground.

These are the spec's for the subwoofer

No problem. =he speakers were ready to ship and waiting for only the grills to arrive la=t week at Technomad in Massachusetts (the place of assembly, and the point =f origin for the shipment of the fully assembled speakers). When the =rills arrived to them 11/26 (day before Thanksgiving), they were not painte=. I'm not sure what color they were when they arrived to them, =ut they need to be Forest Green. So they sent the grills back to be p=ainted with a request to expedite, keeping in mind the holiday. The up=ated ETA which I provided you in an email 11/26 at 11:27 am central was tha= they would be shipping out late this week.

=p class="MsoNormal"> =/p>

Technomad anticipates s=ipping everything tomorrow or Friday from their MA facility, and that'=s in line with what they told us last week. I'll keep you poste= as I know more.

Thanks,

Shawn

Hi Shawn,

</=>

I am updating my supervisors to our conversation.=Can you confirm the following per your conversation:

. = The customize green spe=kers arrive to Assembly and Distribution the week before thanksgiving to be=shipped on Monday

- o The grills came in black instead of the green that was requested </>
- o When did they see the error and request the new grills
- o Is Assembly and Distribution in WI also?
 - The new green grills are scheduled to arrive today and the new shipping date is 12/4
