
From: Gul'sum Osmanova <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Monday, April 7, 2014 10:27 AM
To: Jeffrey Epstein
Attachments: Manage Database for _Applications_.pdf; 3233828 inv.pdf

Below are the attachments, whi=h they've sent me.

Act=ally, I didn't expect housing to be so expensive.

So , for getting me there I need to ma=e two visas, one of which I should start to apply now (its government lett=ng out visa) and the second one is Schengen, right after it. <=r>

This one costs 100 $ (320,000 uzbek so=ms) and shenghen visa application costs 110 euros.

and I should open a Visa card for going abroad, w=en 2 years ago we came to the embassy with dad, they let us to France beca=se we opened visa card for dad. I asked in a bank , they said it is almost=free, (5 bucks) but I should put 100 dollars there to open my account.&nbs=;

and additional costs for papers and docume=ts (like those which uzbek people buy in banks to say that they have money=on their accounts for embassy, yeah, that's crazy :) will add up some =0 bucks, so I would really ask you to send me these by western union= otherwise it will stop all the process.

A woman fro NYFA sent to me and Bella =lein this:

"The=Address of where you will be staying the 6 weeks in Paris is:

=dagio Montmarte
[REDACTED]

The cost will be $3,900 and does not include food.

We suggest student= bring $250 per week you are stain with us for food etc...'

and Im like wooow, that's much pain in my boyish ass, but that al=o gives me a challenge to fully meet the expectations.

feels like I never felt myself so encouraged and motivated. even shaved my =egs (for some good old tradition)

Also, I really thing about making=some little clay God of Moving Ass from Uzbekistan to France and put th= totem in a prominent place and make him sacrifices like baguette, creme b=ulee, bardo vine and cigars. But I don't have it here in Tashkent , so=I will just dance for it.

<=iv> _____
avec soin,
Gul L=;sum Osmanova.