Hi Jeffrey,

It's such a shame that you prefer to let me go. I think I'd be great for you= foundation at this juncture. And here's why:

I can travel everywhere you need.

I can astutely identify relevant research for you.

I can promote your scientists in the national press where I'm publishing and=have good connections.

I write and assess quickly and well.

I have good relations with your team and scientists. They like my writing an= support. (except for the blip with MIT Media Lab--which I would hope to re=edy).

I am loyal, discrete and totally trustworthy. Which I would always be whethe= I work for you or not.

If you contact NeuroTV they will tell you how pleased they were with the rep=rt that I did for them. Ben Goertzel also really liked my AI article which w=ll go to press soon.

I really hope to do at least a trial run in a new role with the foundation.

Please do let me know about seeing you in July. If not, I have to get out th=re and hustle.

Thank you,
