After suffering dramatic setbacks in their personal lives, three close friends (Conrad Anker, Jimmy Chin and Renan Ozturk) who are among the world's best professional climbers battle their complicated pasts, inner demons and nature's harshest elements in an attempt to confront the Shark's Fin on Mount Meru, the most technically complicated and dangerous peak in the Himalayas.

"One of the best documentaries of the year. More than a gripping tale of human resilience, survival and friendship with killer cinematography. It's a thoughtful meditation on life, death and everything in between."
