Ok great, thanks Rich.

If it's helpful at all - had a chat with the trading desk yday some themes =hey are seeing is cherry picking spots in non-US securities and then =edging out the fx exposure, and scooping HY energy bonds throughout 1Q. =nbsp;On the investment opportunity side we have GPOP II which is =ocused on global growth private equity (first deal was just announced =hich is with Pinterest) that will give investors exclusive access to =o-invests, and Fidelis which is a play dedicated to the insurance =pace. Two in the pipe are an internet private equity and =secondary real estate fund

Fingers crossed! Thanks for the =elp.

Best,

Judie

Rich,

Hope all is well.

I know we have had a dialogue for the last six months to a year about whether or not you wanted to pursue opening an account here, specifically around the services we offer our most sophisticated clients such as trading and opportunistic investments.

Please advise if this is something you'd like to do now or do you want to hold on further.

Best,

Judie
