Hi Jeffrey,

Great to hear from you.

The valuation information, etc., is in =he deck — here is the link! Additionally, I have =ttached our general term sheet for your review.

In terms of John — it's =ore to do with my husband, Max, than John. Because Max works so =losely with his parents he tries to keep our personal life and his work =retty separate. Although I was thrilled that John shared some =nformation about my companies with his network, I just felt that I had =o get on the same page with Max before responding. I should have =nitually emailed Lesley something to this effect, but felt awkward =bout it (!).

Please let me know if these are materials are what you had in =ind, and thanks so much.

Best,
Jennie
