Funny.

Yeah, Dave kept saying he could fly even when they were stitching him up , a chunk of his skin was hanging out of his knee, doc told him he shouldn't bend his leg for a few weeks and they would get just 2hrs of sleep.

([REDACTED] would have passed out...) Just be safe.

PS: If you look out the window on final for rwy 23 in Bedford, you may see a Cirrus that pulled a shoot and crashed in the woods last week. No injuries..
