Ok, great,
Jeffrey, I'd like to apologize in advance if the Boeing trip doesn't launch. I tried my hardest to keep this deal together.
Thank you,
Larry

Jeffrey,
If Boeing trip cancels, which sounds like it may, according to Darren's email,
Dave and I should come to St Thomas Thursday for a GII departure on Friday evening to avoid storm track, if you like.
after we understand what the wind velocity actually will be for St Thomas, you can let me know if I should fly Bell away from storm track, or would you prefer to leave in our Hanger?
I am paid for Hanger this month at Hancock's hanger which is my last month there.
Nicolas is asking to put his R44 in our hanger, are you comfortable with Nicolas using my space in Hancock's hanger for storage of this Helicopter during this storm?

You where quit clear that Nicolas heli is not allowed our hanger. Makes sense that our Helicopter is housed in our hanger alone, with nothing stacked near it in case a door blows in, etc. Plus our hanger is a middle bay, which may provide better protection than Hancock's hanger.

Thank you,
Larry
