Hi [REDACTED],

I left you a voice mail earlier this morning but wanted to follow up via email. I am working on the Google + integration on our websites and have run into a minor issue. I will be able to get it resolved, but I realized if there are any contacts you have worked with to manage these sites outside it would be beneficial for me to have access to them.

PS - twitter is on the 1st page now and is one of the results my team has been working on. We are also working on the LinkedIn and a few others I'll tell you more about later today.

Sincerely,

Tyler Shears
