[REDACTED], thanks so much for jumping in today – could you please take a look at the attached? There's still one paragraph I need to finalize but I'll send that to you shortly. And I'll find out which judge wants to take this, and hopefully find out when, and circle back. Thank you!

Thanks [REDACTED] — well have a final version for review by 9:30 and then will get to the judge right away after that — who should I send the draft to st that time for review?

What is the plan for the search warrant? I have an agent standing by.

Following up on the two things we talked about earlier, the new victim's attorney has asked if we're able to meet with her on Friday at 2:00. Is it be possible to have agents join at that time?

And separately, our supervisors have a draft of the search warrant, but given the time of day I think it's possible that we'll end up needing to swear it out in the morning. We'll certainly keep you posted, but wanted to provide the most recent status.

thanks,
